New Urban Arts SUMMER STUDIO

ART INQUIRY

1:00-5:00pm; Monday-Thursday
July 9 – August 10, 2018

Applications due Friday, June 1st
10 paid positions for high school students

Working with artist mentors Dana Heng and Dean Sudarsky, create new work around this summer's theme: Propaganda

Join us as we dive deep into the world of propaganda. Students will explore how artists, designers, politicians, businesses and others have used the arts to actively spread ideas and beliefs. Students will dissect and create artworks to gain a better understanding of the visual culture surrounding them.

Youth receive a $400 stipend for participation.

UNTITLEMENT PROJECT

1:00-5:00pm; Monday-Thursday
July 9 – August 10, 2018

Applications due Friday, June 1st
10 paid positions for high school students

Through conversation and creative expression, investigate gender, relationships, identity, and stereotypes. Working with artist mentors Ashley Cavallaro and Kevin Lamoureux explore inequities around language, privilege, and power.

Youth receive a $400 stipend for participation.

OPEN STUDIO

5:00 – 7:00pm; Monday – Thursday
July 9 – August 10, 2018

Open to all students in high school!
(including rising 9th graders)

Join us for our free Open Studio to learn about New Urban Arts, make art work and friends!

There will be a mandatory
Summer Orientation for all students on July 6, 2018.

About New Urban Arts

New Urban Arts is a nationally recognized community arts studio and gallery in Providence, RI that brings together emerging artists and public high school students through yearlong mentoring relationships. Our mission is to build a vital community that empowers young people as artists and leaders to develop a creative practice they can sustain throughout their lives.

In 2009, New Urban Arts received the nation's highest honor for the field of out-of-school time arts and humanities programs given by the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities.
